Classification of the Okinawa Project

1. The Okinawa Project, on which you are now engaged in planning with the U. S. Army Engineers, was downgraded to restricted, effective 8 July 1948.

2. It is assumed that formal notice to the Western Ocean Division, U. S. Army Engineers, will come from the Office of the Chief of Engineers in Washington.

Dear Orin:

I have just dispatched a message to you from [redacted] [redacted] who is one of our Branch Chiefs, to Colonel Schow at EUCOM. [redacted] and his party will be in Europe from 30 to 60 days and will probably want to send messages to Washington from time to time. I have instructed them to call you, [redacted] in London, as I know you will gladly take care of any messages they want to get back to Washington.

[redacted] is accompanied by [redacted] and [redacted]. It is possible that they may come to London in connection with this trip. If they do, they will call on you and I will appreciate greatly your doing whatever you can to assist them and make their stay a pleasant one.

Sincerely,

L. K. White
